Ep.3: Love Does Not Endure All Things

I invite you to examine what love is and what it is not within your own life. Answer the following questions for yourself only or discuss them with friends and family.

Define what love means to you.

Define what you imagine love would mean to Jesus.

If someone who says they love you treated you in ways that did not feel loving, list 3 examples of their behavior.

Describe the situations in which you are comfortable setting healthy boundaries against abuse and mistreatment: with family, friends, classmates, co-workers. Such as asking a sibling not to bully you or call you names.

If you've encountered a situation where you did not set a boundary, but knew you should have in order to prevent further abuse and mistreatment, describe what feelings arose about yourself.
